Assignee

Assignee is the person or special purpose entity that has been appointed by the assignor.

proceeds of sale to the Assignor's creditors in accord with priorities established by law.

Assignor

Assignor is the corporation, or other entity that has undertaken the assignment.

Filing Deadline

The Filing Deadline, or Bar Date, is the date established in the assignment notice by which all claims must be submitted to be eligible for any distribution.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom assignor owes a debt that was incurred prior to the date of the assignment.

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the assignor on the date of the assignment. The creditor must file the form with the assignee prior to claims deadline (the "Bar Date")

Secured Claim

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the assignor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a assignor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the assignor money (has a right to setoff).

Claim Entitled to Priority

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in an assignment before other unsecured claims. Certain wage and tax claims may be considered priority claims.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded in the public domain.
